About the Mudgeeraba Agricultural Show Young Woman of the Year & Show Ambassador Awards

The Mudgeeraba Agricultural Show Young Woman of the Year and Ambassador Awards is a dynamic leadership program open to all enthusiastic young people eager to positively impact their community and the Agricultural Show movement. Our mission is simple yet profound: to Recognize, Develop, and Celebrate Young Leaders in our Communities.

This transformative program empowers participants to hone their leadership and public speaking abilities, fostering the confidence needed to actively engage in and represent the Mudgeeraba Agricultural Show. From its inception, the Mudgeeraba Agricultural Show Young Woman of the Year and Ambassador Awards have evolved, continually striving to nurture emerging talents and cultivate future leaders.

We seek individuals who embody traits such as personality, confidence, leadership, commitment, dedication, passion, general knowledge, contextual agricultural understanding, community involvement, and exemplary presentation and public speaking skills. These qualities form the cornerstone of our selection criteria for the Young Woman of the Year and Show Ambassador positions.

Moreover, we extend this opportunity to young women who aspire to be the face of our show. Countless participants in this competition have not only showcased their talents but have also acquired invaluable skills for personal and career development. Join us in this rewarding journey of growth, leadership, and community engagement at the Mudgeeraba Agricultural Show!
